

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Patuxent Research Refuge Interpretive Programs

August, 2000

REGISTRATION

All programs are FREE, but require advance reservations.

Reservations are taken by calling 301-497-5887. Please advise us of any special needs so that we may accommodate you. Visit us on the web:

patuxent.fws.gov

for program listings, upcoming events, and MORE! Become a "Friend of Patuxent" or a Refuge Volunteer and receive a monthly newsletter.

Programs held at the North Tract

The North Tract is located on Rt. 198 between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and Rt. 32 in Laurel, Maryland.

Butterflies: Nature's Festival of Colors

Sat, August 12, 8:30 - 11 am, ages 8 and older with adult

Discover the beauty and role of butterflies in nature on this guided 3 mile hike. Field guides, binoculars and water recommended.

Butterflies: Nature's Festival of Colors

Sat, August 26, 8:30 - 11 am, ages 8 and older with adult

Discover the beauty and role of butterflies in nature on this guided 3 mile hike. Field guides, binoculars and water recommended.

Bird Tour

Sun, August 27, 5:00 - 9:30 am, ages 16 and older

Discover night and early morning birds of the Refuge on this guided van tour. Binoculars and field guides recommended.

Programs held at the National Wildlife Visitor Center

The National Wildlife Visitor Center is located on Powder Mill Road between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and Rt. 197 in Laurel, Maryland.

Perilous Journey

Tues, Aug 15, 1 - 2 pm, ages 16 and older

Discover the perils of migration that many birds face and how the National Wildlife Refuge System and the public play a key role in their conservation during this interactive slide presentation.

Perilous Journey

Sun, Aug 20, 1 - 2 pm, ages 16 and older

Discover the perils of migration that many birds face and how the National Wildlife Refuge System and the public play a key role in their conservation during this interactive slide presentation.

